STEWARDSHIP AND PARISH ADMINISTRATION: to lead people to a true conversion– to discipleship. To invite the parishioners to share their gifts of time and talent: to serve as members of committees and to tithe and support the Parish.

Membership, a way of life. Report-Weekly Budget $3,262.00-- I am grateful to our parish community and guests who chose to share in the offering of $ 1,697.10 last weekend. We thank those of our community who assist the parish each day in services as volunteers. Your gifts are appreciated.

Living Stewardship: Jesus says today that we have to hate our families and renounce all of our possessions to be a disciple. These commands seem to contradict his teachings of love your enemies, love God and our neighbor, disciples must be good stewards of property, and a good servant serves the poor. Today's Gospel is not a contradiction. Jesus is telling us that a person who becomes a disciple must make a careful, wholehearted decision to become a disciple, and then must put discipleship before every other relationship and every other goal in life. One's relationship with Christ must be the core relationship from which all else flows.

PEACE & SOCIAL JUSTICE: Serve the needs of others in the Church, in the community and throughout the world

PLEASE REMEMBER OUR SICK AND SHUT-IN PARISHIONERS: Maria & Pablo Arriaga, Marion Barnett, Bernard Beale, Clarence Brooks, Milagro & Yolanda Gutierrez, Jean Harris, Agustin Hernandez, Ann Johnson, Janice LaReau, Rosie Lee McKinley, Willie Mae Newborn, David Ortega, Lannie Simpson, and Mary Williams.

Real Power

Living Faith Daily Catholic Devotions

One day in 1944, in the Auschwitz concentration camp, a group of men stood waiting to be executed. Suddenly a man stepped forward and volunteered to replace one of the men who had been condemned to death. He was Father Maximilian Kolbe... So Father Kolbe joined the group of men in the bunker, where he helped each one to make the final passage of death. When all had died and he was alone the guards came and killed him too. By doing this, Father Kolbe was bearing witness that love is stronger than death.
